A black and white line drawing of a Christmas tree. At the top is an angel with wings and a halo, hands clasped in prayer. The tree is decorated with several round and teardrop-shaped ornaments, some with patterns like snowflakes or stripes. A string of lights with small circles is wrapped around the tree. Three large bows are tied around the tree at different heights. At the base of the tree, on a scalloped-edged platform, are five wrapped gifts of various sizes and shapes. Six empty rectangular boxes with dashed lines inside are connected by lines to different parts of the tree: one to the angel, one to the top branches, one to a side branch, one to a lower branch, one to the base area, and one to the bottom right of the tree.
